DR. J. F. GALBRAITH IS TAKEN BY DEATH

Late Dr. F. H. Rehwinkel on West Second street and later went into his own office in the Franklin Block on East Second street, where he continued until his retirement about 10 years ago.

Dr. Galbraith was the first president of the Rehwinkel Dental society and a charter member at its organization April 21, 1910. He had been one who kept abreast of his profession, but ill health forced him into retirement early in his life. He had never married and was the last of his family, two brothers preceding him to the grave.

His fraternal affiliation was with the Rehwinkel Dental society and with the Ross County Historical society.

Personally he was a very kindly and quiet gentleman and one who made warm friends and kept them.

The son of a minister, he adhered to the faith of his fathers and was a member of the Presbyterian church.

The funeral services will be held at Ware's Funeral home at 3:30 o'clock Friday afternoon, with the Rev. Dr. P. B. Ferris officiating. Intermment will be in Grandview cemetery.
